

Miss Syble Tatom
 Southern State College
 Magnolia, Arkansas 71753

THE SOUTHERN STATER

Volume 3

Magnolia, Arkansas — March 1964

Number 1

Talbot Hall, $750,000 new men's dormitory named for long-time SSC board member D. O. Talbot, and its twin across from the Agriculture Building are two of the four new buildings to be dedicated by Governor Orval Faubus May 10.

Governor To Dedicate New Buildings May 10

Governor Orval Faubus will be guest speaker at the Dedication ceremonies to be held on the Southern State College campus the afternoon of Sunday, May 10, according to President Imon E. Bruce.

Four new buildings, constructed since Dr. Bruce became president of the college in September 1959, will be dedicated—the College Center, the Field House, Talbot Hall and the other new men's dormitory which will be in use by September.

All Former Students are urged to attend the Dedication and to see for themselves the changes which are rapidly making Southern State one of the most modern, well-equipped liberal arts colleges in Arkansas.

Guests, including state officials, members of the Legislature and Former Students, will be invited to tour the campus between noon and 2:00 p.m., when the SSC concert band will play a concert in the Field House.

The Governor will dedicate the buildings at a service beginning at 2:30 p.m. in the gymnasium at the Field House. He will be introduced by Dr. John H. Wilson, chairman of the Southern State College board of trustees.

Program for Dedication May 10:

Tour of Buildings	12:00-2:00
Band Concert, Field House	2:00-2:30
Dedication, Field House	2:30-3:15
Reception, Talbot Hall	3:30

Ford Foundation Asks About Language Lab

The Ford Foundation recently contacted Dr. Betty Blue, assistant professor of Spanish at SSC, for information about the new electronic foreign language laboratory installed in the Home Economics Building (Old Main) last year.

One of the most complete electronic language laboratories in the area, the SSC installation was designed by Jacques C. B. Forbes, assistant professor of French and German, and installed by the Southern X Ray & Electronics Company of Little Rock at a cost of $15,000.

The Foundation wanted to know how many students could be accommodated at one time (36) and the

Continued on Page 5

D. O. Talbot

TALBOT HALL TO BE DEDICATED

Talbot Hall, named for D. O. Talbot of Magnolia, will be formally dedicated by Governor Orval Faubus in the Field House Sunday afternoon, May 10, along with the College Center, Field House and second new men's dormitory north of Talbot.

Mr. Talbot, a native of Summerfield, Louisiana, opened Talbot's Department Store on the Magnolia Square in 1936. He is a director of the First National Bank of Magnolia and the Pioneer Western Insurance Company of Little Rock.

Prominent in civic and religious activities during his years in Magnolia and listed in "Who's Who in the Southwest," Mr. Talbot served as chairman of the Southern State board of trustees ten years and is now entering his 29th year as a college trustee.

Continued on Page 2